

Floating Market

Floating Market is a new game from the design team of Matt Riddle & Ben Pinchback of Fleet and Eggs and Empires fame. Players are eager grandchildren, competing to be the first to collect five different types of Fruit for Ama AND get the first bowl of Fruit Salad!

Ama is tired. It has been a long day of chasing her grandchildren, and she needs a break. Ama has been around for a long time and she has a few tricks up her sleeve. With the promise of her famous fruit salad, Ama sends her grandchildren down to the Damnoen Saduak Floating Market to collect fruit... and to get out of her hair! Collecting different fruit is no easy task, as the fruit boats –full of Mango, Banana, Papaya, Guava, Grapefruit, Rambutan, and the famous Starfruit – are constantly shifting around the Floating Market.
